

Good Co

Electro Swing at its Finest

Carey Rayburn - Trumpet, Brush Kit, Lead Vocals
Sasha Nollman - Lead Vocals
Jacob Sele - Keyboards, Backing Vocals, Laptop
Dune Butler - Upright/Electric Bass, Backing Vocals, Keys
Joe Eck - Drums
Michael Conklin - Clarinet, Saxophone

Seattle six piece Good Co is the US's first live Electro Swing Band. Electro Swing is a new genre that mixes the music of the swing era with the dance music of today. At Good Co performances it's quite common for such things as beatboxing harmonica jams, onstage dance parties, and crowd sing-alongs to spontaneously break out.

That new old sound, Electro Swing combines the era of illicit booze, jitterbugging flappers, and underground speakeasies with the funky beats and the electric sound of today's dance music.

Good Co's third full album, Big Time Business combines the sounds of the 1920s and 30s with rock, pop, latin, and even a touch of gospel.

Good Co has released three full albums and performed throughout the US and Canada for music festivals, conventions, burlesque performances, and anywhere else they can sneak into. You can hear their music on radio and on label compilations in the US, Canada, Europe, and China as well as licensed on independent film and advertisements.

Reviews:

A fun, infectious collection of tunes shot through with a perkiness that brings a smile to my face and lifts my heart. This is life affirming dance music -- Sepiachord

Music definitely needs more acts willing to experiment like this -- RockisRock Blog

Good Co is a group of hard working, adaptive, professional musicians who are willing to work to accommodate tough situations and also to be flexible when the situation calls for it.

Brian Gardner - San Francisco Booker and Producer

I just can't get enough of you guys! There just aren't enough artists out there like yourself. Keep up the amazing work!

-- Matt Maher, WLCA Music Director

The world is leaving an era of digital harshness with predictable arrangements, and moving into a time when groups like Good Co will thrive on the strength of their unique take, organic sounds and studio savvy.
